Reserving a puppy and what it means: If your application is accepted, you will be asked to send $300 to reserve a puppy. We sell puppies in the order in which we receive the reservation deposits.

Please keep in mind: Whether you are reserving a show prospect or a companion, if at 7-8 weeks when the puppy testing and grading is done to determine show/pets in the litter, if there is not a puppy of your requested designation available, you will be given the choice as to whether you would like a refund of your deposit or if you would like us to keep it to reserve a puppy from our next litter. The reservation deposit is only refundable if there is not a puppy of your requested designation available.
